2022 White House Christmas Tree Selected

Littleton, CO – (October 10, 2022) – Christmas tree growers Paul and Sharon Shealer, Auburn, PA, waited for the arrival of special guests from our nation's capital who were sent to select the 2022 White House Christmas tree. Robert Downing, White House Chief Usher, and Dale Haney, White House Superintendent of Grounds, arrived at the appointed field to look over the Shealer's choice firs in order to select the perfect tree to be the 2022 White House Christmas tree.

Paul and Sharon Shealer were named 2022 Grand Champion Grower in the National Christmas Tree Association's National Christmas tree contest. With this award goes the honor of presenting a Christmas tree to the White House. The Shealers are celebrating their second time winning the national contest. Evergreen Acres Tree Farm was previously named Grand Champion grower in 2000 and presented a Christmas tree to First Lady Hillary Clinton. They were also selected as Reserve Champion Grower in 2008 and presented a tree to the Vice President's residence.

After much searching and measuring Mr. Downing and Mr. Haney selected an 18 ½ foot tall Concolor fir to be displayed in the Blue Room of the White House this holiday season. This special tree has to fit exact and particular specifications to go on display in such a historic room. "We are honored to have the opportunity to represent the Christmas tree growers of America, by continuing the tradition of providing a tree to the White House Blue Room, which will be viewed by millions of people," said Shealer.

Members of the National Christmas Tree Association have presented the official White House Christmas Tree for display in the Blue Room since 1966. 2022 will mark the 57th year a member of the National Christmas Tree Association has presented the official White House Christmas Tree.
